OUR PASTOR'S MESSAGE

The March for Our Lives

BY FATHER JIM

Father Henri Nouwen writes: "Many voices wonder if humanity can survive its own destructive powers. As we reflect on the increasing poverty and hunger, the rapidly spreading hatred and violence within as well as between countries, and the frightening buildup of nuclear weapons systems, we come to realize that our world has embarked on a suicidal journey....It seems that the darkness is thicker than ever, that the powers of evil are more blatantly visible than ever, and that the children of God are being tested more severely than ever." These words were not written last year or last month or even last week. They were written thirty-eight years ago. And yet across long years, they speak boldly to us now as we begin this holiest of weeks.

Father Nouwen is right. There is a darkness at loose in our land. Look around. Trash is being dumped on our highways. Litter is being carelessly tossed onto our neighborhood streets. Graffiti and violence are returning to our cities. Friendly debates about important issues are breaking friendships and ruining family gatherings. Bullying and bigotry are on the rise in our schools and in the public square. Our leaders are using social media platforms to ruin the reputations of their political opponents. Budgets are being drastically cut for education, food and nutrition, health care, and housing for the poor. At the same time, a new nuclear arms race is now underway and our wealthiest fellow citizens just received a big tax cut. And once thought forever defeated, authoritarianism and political persecution are reemerging both at home and abroad.

Last summer, we watched in horror as a white supremacist march in Charlottesville, Virginia turned violent and left a young woman dead underneath a car. Last fall, fifty-eight concert goers were killed in a shooting during a music festival in Las Vegas; and one month later, twenty-six parishioners were killed in a shooting at the First Baptist Church in Sutherland Springs, Texas. Last month, seventeen people were killed in a shooting at Marjorie Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida. And believe it or not, the Gun Violence Archive reports that 3,082 Americans have been killed by gun violence during just the first three months of this year.

In the midst of such darkness, we see a bright light shining in the eyes of some young fellow citizens. This weekend, all over the country, high school students and young adults are participating in the "March for Our Lives." This remarkable movement was inspired by some students who survived the school shooting in Parkland, Florida; but it has grown into an international pro-life movement to protect our children and grandchildren from gun violence. In their mission statement, we read: "Not one more. We cannot allow one more child to be shot at school. We cannot allow one more teacher to make a choice to jump in front of an assault rifle to save the lives of students. We cannot allow one more family to wait for a call or text that never comes...We must make it a top priority to save these lives." As Catholics, we could do worse than to take some guidance from these young men and women who seem to understand all too well that protecting life means protecting every life: especially the lives of our children and grandchildren. We could do worse than to follow them into the streets (even if only in spirit) to help them change our troubled world.

In the Old Testament, the Book of Wisdom serves as an exhortation to justice and a rebuke of corruption, dishonesty, and the abuse of power. In that ancient book, we find a compelling verse that seems to sing with relevance during these dark and difficult times: "The righteous who have died will condemn the ungodly who are living, and youth that is quickly perfected will condemn the prolonged old age of the unrighteous (Wisdom 4:16)." This Holy Week, let us pray for the safety of these young activists as they march for our lives. Let us pray for the courage to stand with them and with all who stand against darkness and evil in our world. And let us pray for the grace to march with Christ and with all who suffer into the light of the rising sun of new and everlasting life. Peace and blessings to all!

THE HOLY ROSARY

Monday Through Saturday After Daily Mass!

All are invited to join the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport as we pray the Holy Rosary every morning after our 8:00am Daily Mass. By praying the Rosary, we grow closer to our Risen Lord by meditating on the mysteries of his life, death, and resurrection; and we grow closer to our Blessed Mother by asking for her powerful intercession for ourselves, our parishes, and our troubled world. Daily Mass is celebrated in Our Lady of Good Voyage Church on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays at 8:00am; in Saint Joachim Church on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 8:00am; and in Saint Ann Church on Saturdays at 8:00am. For more information, please contact Father Jim at frjim@ccgronline.com or 978-281-4820. Please join us! All are invited! All are welcome!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

The Holy Father's Favorite Way to Pray!

Pope Francis was once asked about his favorite way of praying. In response, he said: "What I truly prefer is Eucharistic Adoration...In the evening between seven and eight o'clock, I pray in adoration before the Blessed Sacrament." Eucharistic Adoration is a prayerful devotion to the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. Each week, the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport offers four opportunities for Eucharistic Adoration: Mondays at Saint Joachim Church (6:30pm-8:00pm); Thursdays at Saint Ann Church (6:30pm-7:30pm); and Tuesdays and Thursdays at Saint Joachim Church (8:30am-10:00am). ## SHARING GOD'S MERCY

DIVINE MERCY SUNDAY

Sunday, April 8th · Begins at 2:00pm

In 2000, Pope John Paul II canonized Saint Faustina Kowalska and designated the Second Sunday of Easter as the Feast of Divine Mercy (popularly known as Divine Mercy Sunday). During the past two decades, the devotion has spread throughout the world and reflects a mystical message that the Risen Christ gave to Saint Faustina which was recorded in her diary: "Humanity will never find peace until it turns with trust to Divine Mercy. This is the Easter gift that the Church received from the Risen Christ and offers to all people."

In this spirit, all are invited to join us for Divine Mercy Sunday on April 8th from 2:00pm until 4:00pm in Saint Ann Church. This special afternoon of devotion and prayer will proceed according to the following schedule: Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament at 2:00pm; the Holy Rosary at 2:30pm; the Divine Mercy Chaplet at 3:00pm; and Daytime Prayer & Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament at 3:30pm. In between these periods of shared prayer, all are invited to pray in silence in adoration of the Blessed Sacrament.

In preparation for Divine Mercy Sunday, all are encouraged to pray with the following prayer which is traditionally recited each day at 3:00pm to commemorate the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ:

Jesus, you died
but the source of life flowed out for the souls and the ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world.
O Fountain of Life,
immeasurable Divine Mercy,
cover the whole world
and empty yourself out upon us.
O Blood and Water which flowed out
from the heart of Jesus,
as a Fountain of Mercy for us,
I trust in you!
Holy God, Holy Mighty One,
Holy Immortal One,
have mercy on us
and on the whole world!
Jesus, King of Mercy, I trust in you!
