LIVING THE GOSPEL

Saints for All Seasons Annual Mini-Retreat Series

BEGINS SATURDAY, APRIL 27TH

Now more than ever, we need to step back from the business and busyness of daily life and focus on our relationships with Jesus and those we are called to love. Unfortunately, few among us are able to leave behind home, work, and family for a real retreat from the responsibilities of the world. For this reason and for the third consecutive year, we are very pleased to announce a special series of mini-retreats called Saints for All Seasons.

Throughout his long priestly ministry, Pope Francis has called people of all ages and backgrounds to learn about and pray with the saints. The Holy Father believes in his heart that the saints bring us closer to Christ, closer to the Church, and closer to each other. He says: "The saints are still here, not far from us; and their images [and relics] in our churches evoke the 'cloud of witnesses' that always surrounds us (cf. Hebrews 12:1)...The saints remind us that even in our lives, however weak and marked by sin, holiness can unfold (4-7-21)."

In this spirit of unfolding holiness, all are invited to join us in April, May, and July for a series of two-hour mini-retreats. These times of prayer, reflection, and adoration will focus on the lives of three amazing saints: Saint Zita of Lucca, Saint Joan of Arc, and Saint Veronica. Each mini-retreat will begin with the celebration of Holy Mass in Saint Anthony Chapel. After Mass, Father Jim and Brother Patrick will offer a reflection on the life and veneration of a saint whose life of holiness and love of neighbor has inspired men and women all around the world. There will be time for questions and faith sharing, too.

After each reflection, we will pray in silent adoration of the Blessed Sacrament and in veneration of the holy images of each saint of the day. We will conclude by praying the Holy Rosary and Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament. Here's our upcoming schedule:

SAINT ZITA OF LUCCA

Saturday, April 27th

Begins with Mass at 8:00am

Saint Anthony Chapel

SAINT JOAN OF ARC

Thursday, May 30th

Begins with Mass at 5:30pm

Saint Anthony Chapel

SAINT VERONICA

Friday, July 12th

Begins with Mass at 5:30pm

Saint Anthony Chapel

We hope and pray that you and your family will be able to join us for all or even just part of this special series in celebration of the saints which was so popular last year! For more information, please contact Brother Patrick at brpatrick@ccgrounline.com or 978-281-4820. Save the dates! Spread the word! Bring a friend! All are invited! All are welcome!

THIS WEEK'S MESSAGE

Bearing the Burdens

BY BROTHER PATRICK

Six months ago, Bishop Mark O'Connell, with the full support of Cardinal Sean O'Malley, consecrated me as a diocesan hermit. At the moment of consecration, I understood what it meant to be a hermit because under the guidance of my spiritual director, I had been discerning, studying, and "living into the life" for more than ten years. Although this understanding remains imperfect and incomplete, it continues to grow and mature through the disciplines of prayer, silence, and solitude; and the evangelical counsels of poverty, chastity, and obedience. These practices and perpetual vows help me to give a more authentic and prophetic witness to the Gospel of Christ in the Catholic Community of Gloucester & Rockport...and beyond.

Since last fall, I have worked hard to be worthy of the vocation entrusted to me. It is not easy to work full time in the Lord's vineyard and answer the Lord's call to the eremitic life. But day after day, I find strength and inspiration in the lives of those who have lived before me. Whether called hermits, stylites, anchorites, or solitaries, men and women like me have existed in the Church from its beginnings. In the Old Testament, we read about the Prophet Elijah who was called by God to live alone under the shelter of a rock where he is fed by ravens. In the New Testament, we encounter John the Baptist who lived alone in the wilderness and ate only what nature provided him. Indeed, John is sometimes called the first Christian hermit.

In the early centuries of church history, we meet the so-called Desert Mothers and Fathers. These amazing men and women fled the sin and corruption of the world in order to find God by living in the caves and crevices of deserts in Egypt, Syria, and the Holy Land. In the Middle Ages, Saint Francis of Assisi (one of my chosen patrons) lived more than one half of his post-conversion life in prayer and solitude in secluded caves, huts, and hermitages in the mountains of Central Italy. In fact, many of the saint's most faithful followers (such as Blessed John of La Verna, another one of my chosen patrons) chose the eremitic life. And in our own day, three other professed hermits live among us in the Archdiocese of Boston.

Just last week, the Catholic Church celebrated the Feast of Saint Guthlac of Crowland, an eighth century English hermit. His biographer, a fellow monk called Felix, writes: "From Guthlac, no sick brother or sister went away without relief; no one distressed, without assistance; no one sad, without joy; no one weak, without encouragement; no one sorrowful, without comfort; no one worried, without counsel. So strong was Guthlac in real love that he bore the burdens of one and all alike." From the life of Saint Guthlac, we learn a timeless and important lesson. The hermit is not a recluse. Throughout history, Christian hermits have lived apart from the community, but somehow always part of it — always accessible, always ready to welcome visitors, always ready to offer prayers and spiritual counsel to those in need.

Needless to say, I am not a saint. I now begin every talk or presentation with the words of Saint Patrick (yet another one of my chosen patrons): "I am Patrick, a sinner, a most simple countryman, the least faithful of all the faithful of God." At the same time, I am more and more convinced that a large part of my vocation is to imitate Saint Guthlac and so many other hermit saints by bearing the burdens of my fellow parishioners — by helping to carry the crosses you are asked to carry; by offering a word of God's blessing when we meet; and most of all, by praying for you day and night. May God bless you! May the Lord give you peace!

In this spirit, all children currently enrolled in first grade are invited to join Betsy Works and her team of dedicated catechists for Seeds of Faith I, an all-new six week series of afterschool workshops designed to introduce parents and their kids to Jesus, the sacraments, and the basic prayers and traditions of the Catholic Church.

This exciting new series begins on Thursday, May 2nd at 3:45pm in Our Lady's School. For more information and a registration form, please contact Betsy at 978-281-4820 or bworks@ccgronline.com. Spread the word! Please join us! All are invited! All are welcome!

SHARING GOD'S LOVE

First Holy Communion Source & Summit of Our Faith

BEGINS SUNDAY, APRIL 28TH

As Catholics, we believe that the Holy Eucharist is “the source and summit of the Christian life (CCC 1324).” We believe that the Eucharist is the Body and Blood of Christ. And in communion with Pope Francis, we believe in our hearts: “The Eucharist is essential for us. It is Christ who wishes to enter into our lives and fill us with his grace. The Eucharist, although it is the fullness of sacramental life, is not a prize for the perfect but a powerful medicine and nourishment for the weak (EG 47).”

In this spirit, sixty-four of our young disciples have completed their preparations and are now ready to receive the Body and Blood of Christ for the first time. As our annual celebrations of First Holy Communion draw near, all are encouraged to be mindful of our upcoming schedule:

Sunday, April 28th & Sunday May, 12th
Our Lady of Good Voyage Church at 11:45am

Saturday, May 4th & Saturday, May 11th
Saint Ann Church at 4:00pm

Sunday, May 5th
Saint Joachim Church at 10:00am

If your child or grandchild has completed the second grade and has not received the Sacraments of Baptism or First Holy Communion, we have a special program just for them! It's called The Way for Kids! Beginning on Saturday, April 27th from 4:30pm until 5:45pm in Our Lady's School, Betsy Works and a team of volunteers will lead a five week series of workshops for young disciples. After each workshop, the children and their families will attend our 6:00pm in Our Lady of Good Voyage Church.

For more information about our youth faith formation programs, please contact Betsy Works at 978-281-4820 or bworks@ccgronline.com. Now more than ever, let's pray together for our young disciples and their families! Peace, blessings, and congratulations to all!
